   .....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue any order, direction, or writ, particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondent in not regularizing the services of the petitioner as illegal, arbitrary and violative of Articles 14 and 16of the Constitution of India and further declare that the petitioner was entitled to the consideration for appointment on regular basis in preference to others.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.Y.S.VENKATA RAO

Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR EDUCATION

The Court Made the Following:

ORDER:

The petitioner who was appointed on 01-07-1991 as daily wage worker in the first respondent residential school filed this writ petition for the relief of regularisation of her service.

When the first respondent was calling candidates sponsored by the employment exchange for appointment to the post of Worker on regular basis, the petitioner filed the present writ petition. This Court by an interim Order dated 27-08-1993 in W.P.M.P.No.15823 of 1993 directed the respondents to permit the petitioner to appear for the interview on 30-08-1993. However, this Court further directed that no order of appointment should be given in case the petitioner is selected. Pursuant to the said direction, the petitioner was interviewed and her result was kept in abeyance. It appears that the petitioner again approached this Court by way of filing W.P.M.P.17689 of 1994 seeking a direction to issue appointment order and the said petition was ordered by this Court on 29-08-1994 observing that there is no justification in not issuing appointment order.

It is the submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioner Mr. Y.S. Venkatarao that pursuant to the direction, dated 29-08-1994, of this Court, the results were announced and the petitioner was selected and that she was allowed to continue in the said post till date.

Taking in view the fact that the petitioner was appointed as a daily wage worker as early as on 01-07-1991 and is continuing in service for the last more than 13 years, I deem it appropriate to direct the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for regularisation.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
